

Life is mine true.
But I share it with them too!
I am not alone!

Let ideas flow free
Structure thoughts, ideas and see
Which will come to be

Our rivers of life
Creeks, floods, dams, ripples, and pools
Bring us here today

Flowing through life we learn
Lessons shared between
Lives intertwined bear fruit

Mapping Our Journeys
Lightening, Thunder, Lots of Rain
Inside, Dry, Working

Folks from the region
Passion coming together
Change is here today

So many good thoughts
Diversity brings us strength
Energy to use

His bright shining baby smile
When he looks at his young mother
The two share unspoken love
