

Bio. For Randy Kelley

Native West Virginian born and raised in Clarksburg, WV, Graduated from WVU with a Bachelor's Degree in Wildlife Resources and then obtained a Master's Degree from Mississippi State University in Wildlife Ecology. Began my career by working for the US Army Corps of Engineers in Philadelphia, PA doing wetland violation enforcement work for the Regulatory Section and gaining my first training in wetlands. Came back to WV in 1989 to work for the Division of Natural Resource as Wildlife Biologist in the Mining Coordination and Environmental Review Unit. Has had numerous formal training classes dealing with wetlands and streams as well as now over 20 years of field experience.